MORE THAN JUST A TOURNAMENT

Cup No.1 is not just a youth football tournament for boys and girls – it's an unforgettable experience! It's about great football moments, true team spirit, and friendships that go far beyond borders.

The area around Fodboldvej is full of life. EVERYTHING is gathered in one place: the green pitches, exciting activities, and the hall where everyone meets for lunch and dinner. No time wasted on long bus rides – here, your time is spent cheering, playing, hanging out, and enjoying the atmosphere. Parents can follow the matches up close or relax with a cup of coffee in the sun.

Cup No.1 is international in every sense of the word. Over the years, nearly 10,000 teams from 100 nations have participated – from Australia to Argentina, Nigeria to Norway, and Mexico to Madagascar. Young people from all over the world come together in one big football celebration.

FREDERIKSHAVN - FOOTBALL BY THE SEA

Frederikshavn is a vibrant coastal town with around 22,500 inhabitants, where history, culture, and modern city life come together. The town center is full of cozy cafés, restaurants, and great shopping, while charming old neighborhoods like Fiskerklyngen tell stories of Frederikshavn's deep maritime roots.

The town is home to Denmark's only Palm Beach, where white sand and swaying palm trees bring a southern vibe to the Danish summer. Frederikshavn is also a key transport hub in Scandinavia, with regular train and bus connections, daily ferries to Gothenburg and Læsø, and Aalborg Airport just 40 minutes away – making it easy to reach from anywhere.

Just a short drive north, you'll find Skagen, where the Skagerrak and Kattegat seas meet at Grenen – one of Denmark's most breathtaking natural landmarks.

Frederikshavn is a place where sports, culture, and unforgettable experiences go hand in hand – creating memories that last a lifetime.
